

meet together at such time and place, in said town, as shall be appointed in said warrant, to chuse such officers as the law directs, and may be necessary to manage the affairs of said town; and the inhabitants, so met, shall be and are hereby empowered to chuse such officers accordingly. [Passed November 3.]