

Dear Sir.

Brunswick Oct 22^d 1854

On my arrival here today I find your letter of enquiry as to the Tolman Execution Permit me to say that I have the money on the same, subject to your order I expect to be handed in Portland before this, but will enclose it in letter to you so with-

Halpin was in high indignation did not get the money till the day he started for Colerain. he had previously engaged Barrers to put him through a course of discipline which had never been fully executed. The amount is seventy six dollars and six cents which is at your order

Very Respect

Your Obedt Servt
