

is quite late in the evening, and I suppose I shall have to take an introduction to the wash-tub to-morrow morning.

Will you not write me again, and soon.
After you get home I should be much pleased to receive a visit from you. I shall not be gratified?

Hoping that you will enjoy health and happiness, I will wish you "good night"
and "pleasant dreams".

Your sincere friend,

Charlotte L. Small.
